SUPER BOWL CHAMPION NEW YORK GIANTS GET A LEG UP WITH ARIZON AIR STRUCTURE

In 2012 the Super Bowl was hosted in Indianapolis. An Arizon Air Structure was the official practice facility of the 2012 Super Bowl Champion New York Giants. The Giants used the Arizon Structure for two weeks as they prepared to take on the AFC Champion New England Patriots.

New York Giants' Head Coach, Tom Coughlin loved the facility and said, "Outstanding facility, absolutely outstanding.... College teams here have been working out (in the facility) all fall, so the (FieldTurf surface) has been broken in well. It's settled in and it's in great shape."

From Pop Warner to Pro Bowl, Arizon Structures has you covered. Give us a call today to take your team to the next level.
